

This comment is directed towards the Bob and Madison incident involving the encouragement of vehicular assault on cyclists. I would just like to add my voice to the many others and say that I am astonished that something like this could be allowed to happen multiple times. I believe that Clear Channels should be held accountable and at the very least the individual stations that allowed such a broadcast should also be held accountable.